The Days of Awe are now over and we can all sit back and reflect on our goals and aspirations. Each of us has a memory or two of the services. I know I do! But, before I move away from talking about the Days of Awe, let me say how wonderful it was seeing old friends and welcoming so many new ones to the temple. Your feedback on the services suggests that they made an impact and your responses to the sermons and messages touched me deeply. Thank you.

But with the Days of Awe over, we are now looking forward to getting back to normal. That means many classes and some ideas for some new ones, too, especially created for adults. There will be details in the coming month or so. As well, we are welcoming new families to the temple and to the Religious School and orienting them to all that Beth Miriam has to offer.

I am especially looking forward to working with our amazing young people this year. The Teen Academy class will be challenged and, I think, inspired with new Jewish thinking on contemporary issues. This is the most rewarding part of my rabbinate, in fact. I love watching the students tackle important Jewish subjects with sincerity and seriousness and then watching them in their own classes as madrichim teaching the next generation of your children. L'dor v'dor - From Generation to Generation is a living breathing idea at Beth Miriam and we see it every single week.

There are going to be wonderful worship opportunities, as well. Our Visual Tefillah services are a laid-back and meaningful service with the liturgy displayed on the screen in the Social Hall. The lights are dimmed but the hearts are opened and Shabbat comes in song and prayer. Of course, on regular Shabbatot we have a more formal service, Torah reading, dvar Torah and always an amazing Oneg. And, as we enter the next holiday season, Hannukah, the temple will be filled with light and the smell of latkes and sour cream! There will be much to celebrate in the coming months and the joy of the temple is yours for the taking.

From the Cantor Cantor Marnie Camhi

L'Shanah Tovah! What a wonderful beginning to 5779! Our High Holy Day services were fantastic and our festival celebrations for Sukkot and Simchat Torah were special and so much fun!

I would like to take a moment to thank some of the people who added so much to our worship experiences: Ellie Swartz, Chase Kaplan, Steven Delcoure, Tyler Suchodolsky, Steve Peckman, Tom Gavin, Sophie Gavin, Dr. Arthur Topilow, Andy McDonough, Kara Zappacosta, and Jacob Gerbman. They all chanted, sang, read and played so beautifully! A special thank you to Rabbi Cy always being a wonderful clergy partner and shofar blower extraordinaire!

I am looking forward to all the wonderful things we have to offer at TBM this year! Stay tuned for Youth Choir and Purim announcements!

Shalom,
Cantor Marnie Camhi

From the Principal Stella Jeruzalmi Stanway

School Wide Tzedaka Program this year

During our faculty meeting this year, we discussed the current situation in Israel and the environmental impact that incendiary kites sent by Israel's enemies are having on the fields and forests of Israel, so we decided that we would like to make a bigger impact with our lessons on Tzedaka and help rebuild the scorched farmlands, orchards and forests in Israel by collectively as a school donating to the Jewish National Fund, well known for planting trees in Israel.

Please make it a practice to send your child with some spare change or a few dollars every time you drop off to help us and them achieve this worthy goal. You could even dedicate a change purse or wallet filled with change and have your child decide how much to give each session...or have your child do a chore or two to earn the contribution- either way, there are lots of lessons to be learned via this experience.

Days of Awe Food Drive

A small portion of the food TBM collected and donated to the Mercy Center in Asbury Park

The temple collected about 800 pounds of food for the Mercy Center in Asbury Park during the Days of Awe for the Food Drive. Thanks to everyone, many families will be able to eat in the coming days and weeks. Remember, you do not need to wait to bring in food to help the hungry. Our tzedakah collection boxes always have room for more food and we are only too happy to bring it to those in need. Whenever you come to the temple, bring a can of food. It is guaranteed to be used to feed the hungry.
