From the Rabbi

Of all the Jewish Holidays, without doubt, Purim is the strangest. Here we have a heroine, Esther, who hides her Jewishness only to become the spokesperson and savior of the Jewish people by pointing out the plot that was to be perpetrated by Haman.

As you remember, Haman wanted to destroy the Jews because 'they don't follow our laws' and, through some court intrigue, Esther points out Haman's plans to Haman's boss, King Ahahashuerus.

Today, there are plenty of Hamans running around blaming this group or that group for all of the woes in the world. It has become so hackneyed that any of us could probably name a country, an ethnic group, or a religion and then immediately tell you who they blame for everything. For 700 years, Russia has always blamed the West. For 1200, Arabs have always blamed the Jews. For 1000 years the Chinese blame the Japanese. And so on. There is a Haman who blames all the tzoris on someone else and can never see the hate that consumes his soul.

But Purim teaches us that where there is a Haman, there is also an Esther. There always emerges one who had been silent, maybe even unknown who, through moral strength alone, changes the course of history. Moses was a shepherd and a stutterer who would never be have been nominated to be the great leader he was. The 'man from Dothan' changed the course of Jewish history by directing Joseph's to his brother brothers and thereby began a string of events that would change world history.

Esther saves her people through inner strength although even her husband did not really know where she came from. And the list throughout history, Jewish and otherwise, is endless.

I take from the lesson of Purim what I think is the most important lesson: that there is a sacred hiddenness where we think God is absent but is not truly absent. The moral God resides in the heart of so many but it takes one person with the moral courage to act on it and to lead. That courage is the greatest of God's gifts - greater than empathy and greater than love for it is courage that changes the direction of civilization more than anything else.

Today too many people confuse strength and bravado with courage. They are not the same thing. The real leaders are the ones who inspire, not offer a match and say 'burn the place down.' Esthers are rare but they exist always and the real prayer at Purim - with all of its fun and joy - is for the Esthers of the world to lead with courage and insight to build a place of justice and respect. Anyone can burn down a house - it takes an Esther to keep it standing but change the inside. That is what Esther has shown us and that is what Purim is really about.

Soup Time!

On March 6th the Social Action Committee will be selling soup in the atrium and out in the car lane. We will have vegetarian lentil soup, Michael's famous chicken noodle soup, and mushroom barley soup. Quarts will be $5 each. We also plan to make challah rolls to sell too.

All proceeds of the soup sale benefit the pantry at the Lutheran Church in West Long Branch. Our last sale resulted in almost $300, which we used to buy vegetables, mashed potato mix, and other sides for a Christmas dinner for over 200 families that use the pantry.

Please plan to stop by and buy soup for lunch or dinner. We're sure you'll enjoy it. And you're doing a mitzvah! If you'd like to help us make the soup, please contact Gayle Topper at rqq-gtopper@aol.com or 732-571-1202. We will be at TBM on Saturday March 5th starting around 5 PM. Everyone is invited.

A note from the Cantor

Be happy it's Adar II! Purim is almost here and our Purim Players have been hard at work since January preparing for our Descendants Purim Spiel, written and directed by me. The spiel will be on Sunday, March 20 at 11:00am. Our Descendants Purim Spiel is based on the Disney Channel TV movie musical of the same name, which is based on a book called The Isle of the Lost by Melissa de la Cruz. The story revolves around the children of the villains and heroes of Disney princess movies all living and going to boarding school together. The music is modern, upbeat and fun- running the gamut from techo, rock n roll, soul, pop, to Broadway. It all makes for a fantastic Purim retelling!

Todah Rabbah to our cast and crew: Evan Beson, Lia Bram, Maya Brosniak, Cantor Marnie Camhi, Araiya Casriel, Barry Edison, Paige Edison, Marissa Feldman, Reese Figueiredo, Marian Gross, Eliza Howard, Josie Howard, Briana Jacobson, Danna Kawut, Sadie Kawut, Ysabella Lehman, Rachael O'Neill, Alexandra Preston, Adi Raz, Janet Rosen, Monte Rosen, Eve Segal, Sharon Silverman, and Rabbi Cy Stanway. I hope to see you there!

Shalom,
Cantor Marnie

In The Classroom

What better way to teach the geography of Israel than to bake a cake? That is exactly what Mrs. Gross' class did a couple of weeks ago in their classroom. So Israel is now the Land of Milk and Honey.....and Icing!

Beth Miriam is grateful for the following contributions

A big thanks to Lenny & Dawn Berkeley who graciously volunteered to fund the repair of the Yahrtzeit boards. We also want to recognize Milkulka Electric for repairing the boards so beautifully and charging us at cost. Their number is 732-363-8954.

Mazal Tov to Andrea Phox - Andrea was named a Platinum Medalist during Professional Photographers of America's 2015 International Photographic Competition. A panel of 43 eminent jurors from across the United States selected the top photographs from nearly 5,200 total submitted entries at Gwinnett Technical College in Georgia. Judged against a standard of excellence, just over 2,100 images were selected for the General Collection and 1,085 (roughly 21 percent) were selected for the esteemed Loan Collection—the best of the best. Phox was named a Platinum Medalist, meaning that three of her merited images entered the PPA Loan Collection. In 2015, she was one of only 69 Platinum photographers of the Year.

Moreover, due to this level of success she is being inducted in the American Society of Photographers (ASP) and in addition she will be awarded the Master of Photography Certification at the annual awards ceremony on Jan 12, 2016, due to the fact that she has received the required number of blue ribbons and service merits needed.

Audrey Vernick, always willing to sacrifice for her art, traveled to San Diego in February to accept the California Young Reader Medal (CYRM) for her nonfiction picture book, Brothers at Bat: The True Story of an Amazing All-Brother Baseball Team. The CYRM program encourages recreational reading of popular literature among California students. Since its inception in 1974, millions of California children have nominated, read, and voted for the winners of the California Young Reader Medal. Hundreds of school librarians attended the reception where Audrey was presented with the medal by a sixth-grade student who had competed for the honor. Brothers at Bat is the story of the Acerra family of Long Branch New Jersey. Of sixteen siblings, twelve were brothers who played baseball together for decades and were honored by the Baseball Hall of Fame as the longest playing all-brother baseball team in history. The book was published in 2012. Audrey has four new books for children coming out this year.

Volunteers Needed to Shop for Onegs

The Sisterhood has set up a volunteer sign up for oneg shopping each week. This is NOT a request for set up or break down of the oneg, just shopping for some food items and bringing them to the temple prior to that week's service. Volunteers are only needed to shop for onegs that are not being sponsored by a bar/bat mitzvah family, religious school class, or other special event. This should mean that each temple family should only have to shop once every 2-3 years! A new list of dates, along with the guidelines below, will be posted every 3-4 months. Please go to this link to sign up for a week to volunteer: www.SignUpGenius.com/go/70A0E4CACAC29A20-tbmoneg7 (If the link does not work, please type or copy this address into your web browser).

Items can be dropped off in the TBM kitchen on Wednesday 9-6, Thursday 9-4, or Friday 9-12. No Shellfish or Pork Please.

List A - Pick at least 2: Berries, Pineapple, Grapes, or Melon

List B - Pick at least 2: Cookies, Brownies, Cupcakes, Other Small

Portion Cakes

List C - Pick at least 1: Cheese and Crackers, Dips (Hummus, Spinach, Veggie, etc.) and Chips/Bread, Frozen Appetizer, Small Veggie Platter, etc.

Give receipts to the office for a maximum reimbursement of $40. Thank you again for your help in making our weekly worship an even more wonderful experience. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

What happens when you get a new kidney and you still have a sense of humor? You put mustaches on hospital masks to entertain the children! That is exactly what Bob Kellert, one of our board members and vice presidents of the temple, did while recovering from his kidney transplant. Bob never lost his sense of humor and, in bringing humor to the sick children, helped them cope just a bit better. Bob is doing great, by the way.
